

World Happenings In Pictures

LADY BADEN-POWELL, widow of the founder of the Boy Scout and Girl Guide movements, takes the wheel of a fleetrick at Montreal Airport where she stopped off en route to Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., for the opening of the World Boy Scout conference. Surrounding her are guides and members of Lakeshore troops, who formed a guard to welcome her. Lady Baden-Powell flew from London.

GRANDMA FORGOT SOMETHING — "State Trooper" Roger Hutchinson, 4, of Waterville, Me., has no gun for a cousin, nephew's been notified by Grandma in a uniform just like the one worn by his dad, Trooper John Hutchinson. Grandma didn't forget a thing — she thought, given remembered to attach language to the collar that one more thing is needed, Grandma—the State Trooper suit.

RIGHT-WINGER — Ultraconservative right-winger gives photographs the bird during a borrowed barbeque in Kansas City, Mo. There's no danger of her winding up in the pot, political or otherwise, as the defendant dryer was born with only one wing, and has been purchased as a mascot by owner of a wholesale egg concern.

PIPE THIS — Farmer prepares to lay plastic pipe with this automatic device on a plot of land near Franklin, Pa., where the labor-saving mechanism is manufactured. Disposable reels holding up to 400 feet of pipe are attached to the machine, which is controlled by a three-point hitch, but which is adaptable to any farm tractor, according to the manufacturer. Operating at travel speed, it is designed to unroll a truck, lay pipe 14 to 20 inches deep and backfill after itself, at the rate of 100 feet per minute.

IT JUST WASN'T THIS DOG'S DAY — Hurricane Combe dumped eight inches of rain on Baltimore, Md., flooding many parts of the city. This dog floated like everyone else as he floated down one of the city's main thoroughfares on a piece of lumber during the flood flood.

IT'S CUTTING MARKS THE OPENING OF THE CAUSE — of the Cans Causeway, at McEwen, N.S. With them are Nova Scotia Minister C. D. Howe, senator Mrs. Angus L. Macdonald, Scotia's Premier, Henry D. Hodge, and Mrs. Hodge. The causeway joins the former Nova Scotia premier, cut a cake at the opening Cape Breton Island with the mainland of the province.

LOTS OF "PLUCK" — Lady McCartney, 4, of Des Moines, Ia., plucks a tune on a huge harp at a music industry trade show in Chicago, where news of national revival of interest in the battle moved news music to the nation's most modern ears.

ALONE IN "GHOST VILLAGE" — Elizabeth Preddy John, 70, stands beside her home in the "ghost village" of South Devon, England. The abandoned village is the village's only inhabitant, suffering the effects of her husband's death. There were a number of offers to live in London because she says, "there's no place like home." A legend about the mysterious village in 1817 and cannot such have that the village moved away.

TOP SHOT IS CARRIED ALOFT — Lt. Gilmour, 8, of Des Moines, Ia., is carried by fellow competitors after winning the Governor-General's match at the 72nd annual Dominion of Canada Rifle association meet at Compuhugh ranges at Ottawa.

DO-IT-YOURSELF FASHIONS — Mrs. long jolins of her own sets when it comes to high fashion, has at last succumbed to the do-it-yourself trend. Tailored for each woman's individual shape, comes proud, together with trimmings and pattern. Styles from left: Women's coat with deep chest collar and "dapper wing" collar; horizontally striped wool coat-down with matching, knee-length coat-down with matching skirt; hat-suit with matching high-bellied, pointed collar.

